Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of Crohn's and Colitis Canada

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Crohn's and Colitis Canada (the "Organization"), which comprise the statement of financial position as at December 31, 2025, and the statements of revenue and expenses, changes in fund balances and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Organization as at December 31, 2025, and its results of operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Organization in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Organization or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Organization's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Organization to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Crohn's and Colitis Canada

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2025

1. Purpose of the Organization

Crohn's and Colitis Canada (the "Organization") is a national not-for-profit organization. The Organization's promise is to cure Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis and improve the lives of children and adults affected by these chronic diseases. The Organization was established under the Canada Corporations Act as a not-for-profit organization without share capital and continued under the Canada Not-for-profit Corporations Act in October 2014.

Crohn's and Colitis Canada is a registered charity within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and is exempt from income taxes.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations (ASNPO) and include the following significant accounting policies:

National and Regional Operations Including Chapters

The financial statements include all of the national and regional operations of Crohn's and Colitis Canada and its 23 chapters, and the Calgary and Edmonton Societies.

Revenue Recognition

The Organization follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions.

Unrestricted contributions are recorded as revenue when the amount is measurable and ultimate collection is reasonably assured.

Restricted contributions, other than endowment contributions, are deferred until the period in which the related expenses are incurred. Endowment contributions are recognized as direct increases in fund balances.

Amounts received related to a future period are deferred until the period in which the event occurs.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - (Continued)

Financial Instruments

The Organization considers any contract creating a financial asset for one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity as a financial instrument, except in certain limited circumstances.

Initial Measurement

The Organization's financial instruments are measured at fair value when issued or acquired.

Subsequent Measurement

Investments are recorded at fair value based on the closing bid price at year end. Realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments are recognized as investment income in the statement of revenue and expenses.

Foreign currency forward contracts are recorded at fair value at year end with any changes in fair value recorded in the statement of revenue and expenses as part of the foreign exchange gain (loss).

All other financial assets and liabilities are recorded at amortized cost, less any impairment allowance in the case of financial assets. Any impairment loss is recognized in the statement of revenue and expenses.

Property and Equipment

Purchased property and equipment over $1,000 is recorded at cost and is amortized over its estimated useful life on a straight-line basis. The annual amortization rates are as follows:

Computers and software	3 - 5 years
Furniture and fixtures	5 - 10 years

Leasehold improvements are amortized straight-line over the period of the lease.

When property and equipment no longer contributes to the Organization's ability to provide services, or the future economic benefits or service potential of the property and equipment is less than its carrying value, the excess of its net carrying amount over its fair value or replacement cost is recognized as an expense in the statement of revenue and expenses.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - (Continued)

Research Grants and Awards

Research grants and awards are recorded in the financial statements at the earlier of when a legal obligation exists and when the grants and awards are paid.

Donated Goods and Services

A number of individuals and business organizations have volunteered their time to the Organization's fundraising efforts. Due to the difficulty in determining their fair value, these are not recognized or disclosed in the financial statements.

Expense Allocation

Expenses are allocated (Note 10) using the following allocation method:

Salaries and benefits

Allocated based on staff estimates of time spent on each functional area.

General office

Includes board of director expenses, staff travel, general and administrative costs, publications, amortization and professional services and are allocated based on their applicability to the relevant programs.

Rent

Allocated based on square footage and related departmental salary allocations.

Insurance

Allocated based on an even split between fundraising and administration as the Organization's coverage is based partially on the type and number of fundraising events held and partially on general factors of an administrative nature.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. The estimates are reviewed periodically and as adjustments become necessary they are reported in the year in which they become known. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

8. Fund Balances - (Continued)

e) Unrestricted Fund

9. Financial Instruments

The Organization is exposed to various risks through its financial instruments. The following analysis provides a measure of the Organization's risk exposures at December 31, 2025:

Credit Risk

Credit risk arises as a result of the potential non-performance by counterparties of contract obligations which could lead to a financial loss to the Organization. The Organization's credit risk relates to investments and accounts receivables.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Organization will encounter difficulty in meeting its obligations. The Organization meets its liquidity requirements by preparing and monitoring detailed forecasts of cash flows from operations, anticipating investing and financing activities and holding assets that can be readily converted into cash.

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or expected future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market prices comprise three types of risk: interest rate risk, currency risk, and other price risk.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of or future cash flows from a financial instrument will fluctuate because of market changes in interest rates. The Organization is subject to interest rate risk on its fixed income investments, as disclosed in Note 4.

Currency Risk

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The Organization is subject to currency risk to the extent that investments are held in foreign currencies, as disclosed in Note 4. The Canadian dollar equivalent of balances denominated in United States dollars are as follows:

9. Financial Instruments - (Continued)

Other Price Risk

Other price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices (other than those arising from interest rate risk or currency risk), whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual financial instrument or its issuer, or factors affecting all similar financial instruments traded in the market. The Organization is subject to price risk through its investments in listed equities. The Organization manages other price risk through asset allocation and maintaining a portfolio that is well diversified on both a geographic and industry sector basis.
